DANIELS SHAKES UP ANNAPOLIS ACADEMY SEPTEMBER

Aftermath of "Gouging" Scandal.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels in an interview yesterday defended the submarine flotilla of the United States navy from charges which have been made Secretary of the Naval Academy at Annapolis who against its efficiency by Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, and others since the sinking of the F-4. Mr. Daniels declared that most of the American submarines are as good as any of the types constructed before the European war broke out. No nation, he said, is satisfied yet with its submarine engines and batteries.

Naval Academy at Annapolis who have been there two years or more, has been ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels. Although the Secretary would not admit the recent scandal had anything to do with it, no doubt is felt here that this is the reason for the action. When Superintendent Fullam was transfered there were charges of political influence which the Secretary dealed. No doubt

HOLY NAME PARADE PLANNED.

Eighteen Thousand Catholics Will March, Chairmen Announce.

Approximately 18,000 persons will march in the Holy Name parade Sunday afternoon, October 10. It was announced at a meeting of the chairmen of the committees in charge at Immaculate Con-ception Hall last night. Eight thou-sand will represent the District branches of the society, 2,000 will come from Balimore and 1,000 from towns in Western Maryland.

The parade will start from Union Station at 2:30 o'clock, passing Peace Monu-ment and up Pennsylvania avenue to Fifteenth street. The marchers will turn into the White House Ellipse, where Ben-ediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be celebrated. High dignitaries of the Catholic Church will review the parade from a stand at Fifteenth street, and later take part in the services.
